

ESTIMATOR/PROJECT MANAGER

Sabre Demolition Corporation is a licensed demolition and environmental management contractor. The company provides true turn-key demolition, asbestos abatement, lead abatement and environmental remediation services

Sabre Demolition was founded in 1999 by a team of proven professionals in the fields of demolition and environmental management. Combined, the company's management team has over 61 years of hands-on experience in project management, estimating, and all aspects of corporate operation.

Sabre Demolition is headquartered in Warners, New York and service private and public sector clients throughout the United States.

Requirements

We are seeking a seasoned structural and selective Demolition Estimator/Project Manager with a working knowledge of demolition procedures.

Candidate should know how to generate accurate quantity take-offs from drawings and field visits and should also possess strong operational management skills. Candidate must be self motivated, organized, task driven, capable of handling multiple projects and computer literate. The candidate will be responsible to successfully manage a project from inception to completion inclusive of estimating, project submissions, permits, client liaison, subcontractor negotiation and management, change management, billings and project close-out documentation. Extensive travel is required.

Salary commensurate with experience.

We offer an excellent company Benefit Plan which includes medical and dental benefits, 401(k) and bonus program. For serious consideration send resume and salary requirement to Hiring Manager via e-mail: <mailto:mail@sabredemolition.com>. Please refer to our website www.sabredemolition.com for further information on the Company and lines of business. EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER